

African American Artists Collective

Jason Piggie

Jason Piggie is a Filmmaker/ Producer/ Photographer. He has been working as a Photographer since 1990. Jason Piggie has been creating and filmmaking and producing since 2001. Jason Piggie graduated from the University of Missouri Kansas City (UMKC) with a B.A. in communication. Jason Piggie has written and directed 9 short films including "Bad Dream", " Mattie's Song", " Agent C" and "Domestic". In 2009, Jason Piggie won 1st place at the 3/5/7 Film Festival in the 5 Minute Category and in 2012 won best in show at the Arts KC show. Jason Piggie's film projects have been featured in the changing gallery at the American Jazz Museum. Art exhibitions that Jason Piggie has been apart are: Wall of Respect: Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City, Depictions: People, Places and Things Black Archives of Mid-America , Tomahawk Community Center: Overland Park Ks, Kansas City Artists Coalition: River Market Regional Exhibition, Reflecting the Time: The Box Gallery Kansas City Mo, Jazz Speaks to Life legacy: American Jazz Museum Kansas City Mo, All Hail to Hale: American Jazz Museum Kansas City Mo, and Jazz Then and Now: American Jazz Museum Kansas City Mo. Jason Piggie currently lives in Kansas City Missouri but has done some work in other parts of continental USA.